

2018 IMC Question Of The Week

A solar thermal system in which the fluid in the solar collector loop is gravity drained from the collector into a holding tank under prescribed circumstances is known as _____.

- A) a thermal collector system
- B) a drain-back system ←
- C) an energy recovery system
- D) a closed-loop system

CHAPTER 2

DEFINITIONS

DRAIN-BACK SYSTEM. A solar thermal system in which the fluid in the solar collector loop is gravity drained from the collector into a holding tank under prescribed circumstances.

